STORYLINE

Meet Karamella, a vibrant girl residing in the lively Propeller Circus with her crazy, animal-loving family. Fueled by courage and boundless imagination, she is joined by her best friend Carlo Cannelloni and the groovy rapping parrot Konfetti on daring escapades. Remarkably, on her 10th birthday, Karamella's world takes an enchanting twist when she inherits her late great-grandmother Rosa Famosa's mystical circus wagon, unraveling a secret that transforms her life overnight. Get ready for a thrilling tale of unexpected journeys and extraordinary discoveries!

The friends stumble upon a mystical cookbook inside a charming red and white polka-dot circus wagon, uncovering its extraordinary powers. They are also introduced to the book's inhabitant, a clever goblin named Lillepuk. Possessing the wisdom of an owl, the strength of a lion, and the ability to adapt like a chameleon, Lillepuk joins the children on their enchanting journey through a magical candy spell. This spell, found within the cookbook, grants them the ability to traverse distant realms. In their first expedition, the group finds themselves transported to a lively bazaar within the vibrant world of 1001 Nights. Unfortunately, they unintentionally bear witness to a heinous abduction. Will the children summon the bravery and resilience necessary to rescue the sultan's daughter from the clutches of these villains?

Accompanied by a skilled snake charmer, the children embark on a desert expedition, pouring their heart and soul into devising a masterful plan to liberate the abducted girl. Ultimately, through their audacity and extraordinary circus talents, the friends outsmart the gang of kidnappers and triumphantly flee the confines of the desert fortress alongside the Sultan's cherished daughter. The grateful Sultan showers them with abundant gratitude, for it is through their courage and unwavering camaraderie that they have remarkably transformed the world into a better place.

with high spirits, courage and joy.«

CHARACTERS

Carlo Cannelloni. An exceptional 11 year old boy who calls the Propeller Circus his home, courtesy of his fire-eating father. From their early days at circus kindergarten, Carlo and Karamella formed an unbreakable bond, becoming inseparable best friends. In their harmonious friendship, Carlo finds his true essence, just as Karamella discovers hers. Together, they form an extraordinary duo, infused with a gust of vigor that propels them through every thrilling escapade. While Carlo may be somewhat reserved, his indomitable spirit shines through, as he displays immense bravery precisely when it matters most during their maiden voyage.

Lillepuk. A wily, wise, and compassionate goblin who has resided as a loyal companion within the enchanting cookbook inherited by Karamella on her momentous 10th birthday. With a fascinating ability to vanish from sight and shape-shift at will, this ethereal being bears a remarkable resemblance to a magnificent fusion of a lion, an owl, and a chameleon. Possessing immense strength, unmatched wisdom, and an uncanny adaptability, Lillepuk becomes an indispensable ally as the children embark on their inaugural journey, which marks the beginning of a boundless series of captivating adventures.

Confetti. The rapping parrot who stands as Karamella's fiercely loyal and effortlessly cool companion in every scenario. Renowned for being an ardent admirer and singer of opera, albeit with a knack for hitting the wrong notes, much to the circus family's dismay. His playful nature often veers into cheekiness and his insatiable appetite frequently sidetracks him from important plans. Nevertheless, life would feel incomplete without the vibrant presence of Confetti, for his lively spirit fills every moment with joy and excitement.

Grandma Frida. A remarkable circus performer gracefully embracing the wisdom and humor that come with her 65 years of age. Renowned for conjuring the most delectable meatballs known to mankind and crafting whimsical knitted creations for all beings, she goes above and beyond by knitting kilometer-long scarves for the animal gang. Amidst the thrills and exhilaration, Grandma Frida possesses a unique ability to infuse moments with tiny bursts of joy. Her enchanting super-chocolatey cocoa, complete with marshmallows, possesses a magical quality capable of swiftly drying tears, bringing solace in mere seconds.

Other characters: Rosa Famosa - Hasan Harakiri - Polli Candyfloss and Hula Hoop - Maxe Faxe and Pippa Halligalli - Ruckus and Fuss - Anna Conda - Mats Rocket - Lotti Lametta & Fleur Fantastique - Ricki Ring - Florinda Cornpoppy - Karla Cupcake and many more.

THE AUTHOR STINA BLOOM

»It's incredibly important to empower our little ones, especially in the fast-paced world we live in today. We want every child to whirl through their own unique and joyful story, confidently standing up for themselves and the values that bring people together. How amazing would it be if our kids stayed curious and excited about the surprises and challenges waiting for them on their wild journey? We want them to be fearless problem solvers, ready to jump in and work as a team when life throws unexpected situations their way. Personally, this hits home for me. In this age of technology and constant media, diving into the realm of imagination, with its captivating visuals, enchanting words, and fantastical worlds, is a treasure worth nurturing and cherishing. The vibrant tales of Karamella Propeller and her friends are meant to inspire courage, boost self-confidence, and remind us all that in tough times, believing in the goodness of the world can move mountains. When we join forces, there's no challenge we can't conquer and no creative endeavor we can't achieve, standing tall against villains, threats, and the forces that try to bring us down.«
